A curve has equation $y = x^2 + 2cx + 4$ and a straight line has equation $y = 4x + c$, where c is a constant.

Find the set of values of c for which the curve and line intersect at two distinct points. [5]